All the officers, if present, shall be duly installed on that day, or at such other time as the Grand Chapter shall designate, and if any one of said officers shall be absent at the time of his election or appointment, it shall be the duty of the Grand Secretary to forward due notice thereof, with a request that he shall signify his acceptance or refusal in writing within twenty days at least preceding the next regular convocation of the Grand Chapter, and should any one of said officers decline the acceptance of the office assigned him, or neglect to give notice thereof within the time aforesaid, then such office shall be deemed vacant, and filled at the next regular convocation of said Grand Chapter.

No person shall be eligible to an office in this Grand Chapter except he be a permanent member thereof, or a member of a subordinate Chapter under this jurisdiction.

No person shall be eligible to the office of Grand High Priest for more than three successive years.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1. The Grand High Priest shall form the Chapters under this jurisdiction into districts, for each of which a District Deputy Grand High Priest shall be annually appointed. He shall be commissioned by the Grand High Priest, with the seal of the Grand Chapter affixed and attested by the Grand Secretary, which commission shall be in force until the conclusion of the Annual Convocation in December and no longer.

Each District Deputy Grand High Priest shall visit the Chapters in his district, and inspect their Charter, By-laws, Records, Book of Marks, and mode of work, once a year at least and before the first day of December.

He shall be reimbursed his necessary expenses in making such visitations and also the expenses of a Companion who shall act as District Deputy Grand Captain of the Host.

SECT. 2. The Grand High Priest shall appoint one or more discreet and well-informed Companions to be styled Grand Lecturer, who shall be commissioned by the Grand High Priest, which commission shall be subject to the same limitations as those given to the District Deputy Grand High Priests.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Lecturer when requested by any subordinate Chapter to visit any Chapter under this jurisdiction, and instruct it in the lectures and mode of work; and the Chapter so employing him shall make him a reasonable compensation for his services.

It shall also be his duty, with such assistants as he may require, to rehearse the lectures and exemplify the work of the several Chapter degrees on the day of the Annual Convocation in December, that the officers of the several Chapters may be fully acquainted therewith, and dispense the knowledge of them in a uniform and regular manner in their several Chapters.

The system established by the Grand Chapter and taught by the Grand Lecturer shall be the standard for the regulation of all Chapters under this jurisdiction, and no alteration shall be made in the work or lectures without permission of the Grand Chapter.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. A committee of three shall be appointed at the Annual Convocation immediately after the installation of the Grand Officers to be styled the Auditing Committee, whose duty it shall be to examine and audit all bills presented against the Grand Chapter, together with the Grand Treasurer's, Secretary's and Trustees' accounts and books. They shall report at the ensuing Annual Convocation previous to the election of officers an account of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, with a statement of all funds belonging to the Grand Chapter.

SECT. 2. The Grand High Priest shall appoint annually a Committee on Charters and By-laws to consist of three members, to whom shall be referred all petitions for new Chapters and all matters appertaining to the by-laws of the subordinate Chapters. They shall report at each Quarterly Convocation, recommending such action as may be required by the Grand Chapter. No by-law of any subordinate Chapter shall be valid until the same shall be approved by the Grand Chapter.

SECT. 3. The Grand High Priest shall also appoint such other committees as may be found necessary, unless otherwise ordered by the Grand Chapter. The first Companion chosen or appointed on any committee shall be chairman.

ARTICLE VIII.

SECTION 1. Every petition for a warrant to open a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons within the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter shall be signed by at least nine regular Royal Arch Masons within the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter, which petition shall be accompanied by a certificate from the Chapter or Chapters whose jurisdiction will be affected, vouching for the moral character and Masonic abilities of the petitioners, and recommending to the Grand Chapter to grant them a warrant. Such petition shall be countersigned by the District Deputy Grand High Priest within whose district the new Chapter is proposed to be located.

The Grand High Priest may grant his dispensation for the same, to be in force not exceeding twelve months, and during that time the members of said Chapter shall be examined with regard to their ability to perform the requisite duties by the Committee on Charters and By-laws, or by a committee appointed by the Grand High Priest; said committee to report to the Grand Chapter at its Quarterly Convocation next prior to the expiration of one year from the date of the dispensation.

If the Grand Chapter approve, the Grand High Priest may appoint a time for the consecration of said Chapter and installation of the officers, and direct the Secretary to make out a charter to bear even date with the dispensation; and said Chapter shall pay fifty cents per month for the time it shall have held its warrant.

No charter shall be granted until its jurisdiction shall have been defined by the Grand Chapter, the same to appear in the printed proceedings of the Grand Chapter.

SECT. 2. If a majority of the members of any Chapter, at a regular convocation notified for that purpose, shall vote to remove their Chapter to any other place, the Grand Chapter may sanction and authorize such removal if recommended by the Chapter or Chapters whose jurisdiction will be affected, and countersigned by the District Deputy Grand High Priest within whose jurisdiction the Chapter is located.

SECT. 3. The fees for a warrant for holding a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and opening Lodges of Mark Masters, Past Masters, and Most Excellent Masters, shall be ninety dollars; and the Secretary shall be paid by the petitioners five dollars for his services in executing the charter. The fees for the charter shall be paid upon receiving the dispensation.

SECT. 4. Before a charter for a new Chapter shall be issued by this grand body, the Grand High Priest shall be furnished with satisfactory evidence that the petitioners therefor intend to become members of the same; and if they do not hold membership in any Chapter they shall present satisfactory certificates of their standing as Royal Arch Masons, and before they shall be entitled to the privileges of membership in the new Chapter they must have signed the by-laws thereof.

Any one neglecting this duty for the space of six months shall be subject to ballot for membership in the same manner as is usual for Companions coming by dimit.

ARTICLE IX.

No warrant shall be granted by this Grand Chapter for holding a Mark Masters', Past Masters' or Most Excellent Masters' Lodge, independent of a Royal Arch Chapter.

ARTICLE X.

The several Chapters under the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter shall pay for the support thereof into the hands of the Grand Treasurer annually, the sum of six dollars, and also five dollars for every candidate advanced to the degree of Mark Master Mason in such Chapter, and they shall be entitled to one diploma for each candidate exalted.

ARTICLE XI.

SECTION 1. Every Chapter of Royal Arch Masons under this jurisdiction shall be represented by its High Priest, King, and Scribe, or either of them in person or by their respective proxies, at every convocation of the Grand Chapter. If any Chapter under this jurisdiction shall fail to assemble once in any year, or shall neglect to be represented in this Grand Chapter for two years in succession, or shall fail for two successive years to make a return of its officers and members and pay its dues to this Grand Chapter, then, and in either case of delinquency, the said Chapter shall forfeit to the use of this Grand Chapter its charter, with its records, jewels, regalia and furniture, together with its monetary and all other property of every description.

SECT. 2. The High Priest, King, and Scribe of any Chapter under the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter, when not able to attend the convocations, shall appoint their proxies by a commission signed with their names to which their seal shall be affixed, which commission shall continue in force only during the year for which the said High Priest, King, or Scribe, was elected; and said proxies shall be members in good standing of the Chapter of which the officer gives his proxy.

ARTICLE XII.

No candidate shall be exalted to the degree of Royal Arch Mason by any Chapter under this jurisdiction who shall not have first recorded his Mark in the lodge book, nor for a less sum than twenty-five dollars, and no candidate shall be balloted for until such fee shall be paid, and no note of hand shall be taken by any Chapter for the fees, or any part of the fees, due on the exaltation or advancement of any candidate.

ARTICLE XIII.

The application of any and every candidate who is a resident in this Commonwealth for exaltation in any Chapter under this jurisdiction shall be made in writing and signed by the applicant and be in the following form, to wit:

SECT. 3. No Chapter or assembly of Royal Arch Masons, that may be formed within the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter, shall be deemed legal without the sanction of a warrant from this Grand Chapter. Masonic communication, either public or private, is hereby strictly forbidden between any Chapter or Lodge under this jurisdiction, or between any member of any Chapter or Lodge under this jurisdiction, and any Chapter or Lodge that may be so illegally opened, or any of their members, or any person exalted or advanced in such illegal Chapter or Lodge.

SECTION 1. The life membership fee shall be, and shall continue, not less than ten times the fee for annual dues, but in no case shall it be less than twenty-five dollars.

SECT. 2. All moneys received for life membership, and such other moneys as may be added by vote of the Chapter, shall constitute a permanent fund, which shall be invested in the name of the Chapter. The SECT. 3. Nothing but the income of the said fund shall be used for any purpose whatsoever unless a notice in writing to that effect shall have been presented at a regular convocation of the Chapter, and notice of such intended action shall have been printed on the notices and mailed to every member of the Chapter at least ten days before such action is to be taken, and then only at a regular convocation of the Chapter, and by not less than a two-thirds vote of the members present.

ARTICLE IV.

The High Priest or presiding officer of a Chapter, when notified of the intended official visit of the District Deputy Grand High Priest, shall convene his Chapter, receive him as the representative of the Grand Chapter, resign the chair to him while making his official visit, and submit to his inspection the Charter, By-laws, Records, Book of Marks and mode of work.

The Chapters under this jurisdiction shall make an annual return to the Grand Secretary of their officers and members, of all candidates marked, passed, acknowledged, and exalted, agreeably to the form established by this Grand Chapter; for which purpose suitable blanks shall be furnished.

ARTICLE V.

When any member of a Chapter under this jurisdiction shall be accused of any offense which if proved against him would subject him to suspension or expulsion, the proceedings in the premises shall be conducted agreeably to the following rules:

1st. The accusations shall be made in writing, under the signature of a Royal Arch Mason, and given in charge to the Secretary of the Chapter, who, under the direction of the High Priest, shall serve, or cause the accused to be served with, an attested copy of the charges, fourteen days at least previous to the time appointed for his examination: provided the residence of the offending Companion shall be known, and shall be within the distance of twenty miles of the place where the Chapter is located. If the residence of the accused be at a greater distance than twenty miles, but within the State, then and in that case a summons to appear and show cause, forwarded to him by mail or other conveyance, twenty days at least before the time of trial, shall be considered sufficient service. If the residence of the delinquent be unknown, the Chapter may proceed to examine the charges ex parte.

2d. The examination of the charges shall be had in a Chapter specially notified and convened for the purpose, at which no visitors shall be admitted, except as counsel or witnesses.

3d. The accused may select his own counsel, and the witnesses shall testify on their honor; hearsay evidence shall be excluded.

4th. The question, "Is the accused guilty or not guilty?" shall be distinctly put to each member of the Chapter by name, commencing with the youngest member. The answer shall be given standing, and in a distinct and audible manner. The Secretary shall record the answer as given.

5th. If the verdict be suspension or expulsion, the proceedings shall be sent up at the ensuing convocation of this Grand Chapter for examination.

6th. A sentence of expulsion shall not take effect until confirmed by this Grand Chapter; but shall operate as a suspension of the delinquent.

7th. A Companion feeling himself aggrieved by the decision of a subordinate Chapter shall have the right of an appeal to this Grand Chapter, he having given due and timely notice to the subordinate Chapter of his intention so to appeal from its decision.

8th. Whenever this Grand Chapter shall reverse or abrogate the decision of a subordinate Chapter, suspending or expelling a Companion, and shall restore him to the benefits and privileges of Royal Arch Masonry, he shall not thereby be restored to membership within the body from which he was suspended or expelled, without its unanimous consent.

9th. In all respects other than those here specified the proceedings shall be conducted agreeably to the regulations of ancient craft Masonry.

ARTICLE VI.

Each Chapter under this jurisdiction shall have a seal, which shall be affixed to all communications made to this Grand Chapter, and to all credentials which may be given by such Chapter to any member thereof.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever the by-laws of any Chapter require the names of candidates to be inserted in the notifications, a dispensation from a Grand Officer does not render such an insertion unnecessary.

ARTICLE VIII.

All motions made in the Grand Chapter, the determination of which may require to be recorded, shall be handed in writing to the Secretary, who shall present them to the presiding officer for the time being.

ARTICLE IX.

No vote of the Grand Chapter shall be reconsidered by a less number of voters than were present at the passing of the same.

ARTICLE X.

The fee for a dispensation to elect officers of a subordinate Chapter at other than the regular convocation shall be five dollars; provided that should such convocation occur upon a legal holiday, no fee shall be charged.

ARTICLE XI.

The Grand Secretary shall not deliver diplomas, except on the written order of the Secretary of the particular Chapter for whose use they are intended; and such order shall specify the number wanted, together with the fact that the diplomas shall be delivered to candidates exalted since June 12, 1883.

The Secretary of every Chapter shall report with the annual returns the name of each and every candidate receiving a diploma during the year, the date of his exaltation, the date of delivery of diploma, and the number of diplomas on hand on the thirty-first of August, annually.

ARTICLE XII.

For the better preservation of the charters of Chapters under this jurisdiction, which are likely to become defaced by age or wear, any subordinate Chapter may provide itself with a copy of its charter, and, when the same shall have been duly certified by the Grand Secretary, such Chapter may and hereby is authorized to use this certified copy of its charter for all Chapter purposes except on the occasion of the visitation of an officer of the Grand Chapter, or the installation of the officers of the Chapter, when the presence of the original shall be required.

ARTICLE XIII.

Each Chapter under the jurisdiction of this Grand Chapter shall make its annual returns, as hereinbefore prescribed, directly to the Grand Secretary, on, or before, the first day of October in each year, and the failure of any Chapter to comply with this Particular Regulation before the tenth day of October, shall subject such Chapter to a penalty of ten dollars.

ARTICLE XIV.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest is authorized and instructed to provide, at the June and September convocations, such entertainment as he shall deem for the best interest of the Grand Chapter.

ARTICLE XV.

District Exemplifications shall be held in every district under this grand jurisdiction at least once in two years, the Grand High Priest granting a dispensation therefor; and it shall be the duty of the Deputy of the district to make all necessary arrangements for holding the same.

When a District Exemplification is held in any district under this grand jurisdiction the officers of every Chapter shall be required to take part in the work.

The Grand Chapter shall pay the Grand Lecturer for his services at a District Exemplification, all other expenses to be paid for by the several Chapters in the district where the Exemplification is held.

ARTICLE XVI.

At least one day shall intervene between the conferring of the Most Excellent Degree and that of the Royal Arch.

Of the three Degrees, Mark, Past, and Most Excellent Master, not more than two degrees may be conferred on the same candidate in one day.

The Grand High Priest may grant a dispensation permitting other action.

ARTICLE XVII.

Every Chapter in this jurisdiction shall send a written or printed sealed notice to its members, giving place and time of meeting, business to be transacted, and names of candidates to be balloted for, with such other information as may be proper.

Every Chapter shall send to the Grand High Priest in office copies of all notices of Chapter meetings sent by it at the same time that they are sent to its own members.

ARTICLE XVIII.

In order to guard more carefully that period of acquaintance and residence which is desirable, and that Chapters may be able to acquire proper knowledge as to candidates, the length of time necessary for a Mason to reside within the jurisdiction of any Chapter in the Commonwealth to be entitled to apply thereto for the Capitular Degrees, shall be not less than six months.

ARTICLE XIX.

No Chapter shall, except under dispensation from the Grand High Priest, work any degree outside its own chapter hall.

ARTICLE XX.

No Chapter shall work any degree upon candidates of other Chapters unless a dispensation permitting such action shall be previously obtained from the Grand High Priest.

ARTICLE XXI.

The Grand Secretary shall report to the Grand Chapter, at the Annual Convocation each year, a complete list of all dispensations issued during the year.

ARTICLE XXII.

This Constitution and these Particular Regulations shall not be altered or amended, unless such alteration or amendment be proposed, in writing, at one regular convocation of the Grand Chapter, and at a subsequent regular convocation receive the approval of two-thirds of the members then present.

DIGEST OF CAPITULAR LAW

Adopted by the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts,
December 9, 1902.

APPEAL.

FROM HIGH PRIEST'S DECISION.

No appeal can be made to a Chapter from a decision of a High Priest. His decision can be reviewed only by the Grand High Priest during the recess of the Grand Chapter, subject to final action by the Grand Chapter, or by appeal directly to the Grand Chapter.

APPEARANCE IN PUBLIC.

No Chapter in this jurisdiction shall appear in public for any purpose except on funeral occasions, or for installation of officers, without the consent of the Grand Chapter or dispensation of the Grand High Priest.

APPLICATION. See Candidate.

BALLOT.

FOR OFFICERS.

In a ballot for officers, a blank piece of paper, or a vote for an ineligible candidate, thrown into the ballot-box contains no expression of the will, desire or preference of the voter, and is not to be counted as a vote.

FOR CANDIDATES.

In balloting, all members of the Chapter present must vote unless excused.

In balloting for degrees or membership, the High Priest may allow three ballotings at his discretion. If, after a report of the Committee on Application, there shall only two dissenting votes appear, the ballot may be repeated, and if one blackball shall then appear, another ballot may be ordered; and if one blackball shall then appear, the candidate must be declared rejected.

ALL PETITIONS MUST BE BALLOTTED UPON.

All petitions for the degrees or affiliation must be balloted upon, whether the committee report favorably or unfavorably, except in cases of no jurisdiction or physical disqualification.

POSTPONEMENT, WHEN.

Any time previous to the ballot on an application for the degrees or membership, the High Priest shall, on request in writing of a member who is unavoidably absent, or for other good cause, postpone the ballot thereon until the next regular convocation, but no longer.

CANNOT BE POSTPONED WHEN ONCE COMMENCED.

The balloting on a petition, when once commenced, cannot be postponed, but must be completed and the result thereof declared. Neither can it be reconsidered.

TO BE SECRET.

The ballot must be held absolutely sacred and no member shall be required to give his reasons for the ballot which he has deposited, or disclose the manner in which he voted under any circumstances whatever.

BUSINESS.

ON WHAT DEGREES TRANSACTED.

Any business may be transacted in open Chapter in any of the degrees except the election and installation of officers and visitation of Grand Officers, which must be on the Royal Arch Degree.

BY-LAWS.

EVERY CHAPTER SHALL ADOPT.

Every Chapter chartered by this Grand Chapter shall adopt by-laws for its government; and the same must conform to the constitution and laws of the Grand Chapter. Such Chapter shall, in its by-laws, fix the time of its stated meetings, the fees for the several degrees, the annual dues of its members, the time for the election of officers, and such other regulations as may be deemed for the best interests of the Chapter.

AMENDMENT OF.

A Chapter has the right to revise, alter or amend its by-laws in the manner provided in such by-laws. If no provision is made therein for such alteration or amendment, it may be done by a majority vote after such proposition to amend has been submitted in writing at a stated meeting and has lain over for one month; but all such amendments must be approved by the Grand Chapter.

SUSPENSION OF.

No Chapter can suspend its by-laws or any of them.

CANDIDATE.

WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION OF.

An application having been presented and referred cannot be withdrawn, either by unanimous consent or otherwise, but must be acted upon by report of committee and ballot, provided that if at any time before or after the ballot, and before initiation, it is discovered that the petitioner does not live within the jurisdiction of the Chapter, or is not of lawful age, further proceedings must be stopped and the application dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

PHYSICAL DEFECTS OF.

No Chapter under this jurisdiction shall confer the Chapter degrees upon any Mason whose physical defects are such as to prevent him from receiving and imparting the ceremonies of the several degrees.

OBJECTION BEFORE REFERENCE TO A COMMITTEE.

After a petition for the degrees or membership is read, and before a committee of investigation has been appointed, it is the right of a member to object to the application being received, in which case the High Priest shall order it to be returned to the applicant without further action on the part of the Chapter; but such objection shall not prevent the petitioner from again petitioning at a subsequent meeting.

OBJECTION TO CONFERRING DEGREES ON.

In case of objection to the conferring of the degrees on a candidate who has been elected, unless the objector announces his objections as temporary and only for the purpose of further inquiry, it shall be considered as having the effect of a blackball; the fee shall be returned, and the candidate may be permitted to petition again after the expiration of six months from the date of objection.

OBJECTION TO ADVANCEMENT OF.

Should objection be made to the advancement of a candidate after he shall have received one of the Chapter degrees, it shall be the duty of the High Priest to order the Companion so objecting to file written charges forthwith; and the Chapter shall proceed to investigate said charges, and if the same shall not be proven, the degree shall be conferred upon said Companion as if said charges had not been made.

All objections to advancement, after a degree has been conferred, shall be recorded, together with the name of the objector. Any such objecting Companion shall prefer charges against the party objected to, based on the grounds of his objection, within two months after the date of filing the same, and a trial shall be had thereon without delay. Should such objecting Companion fail or refuse to prefer charges within the time specified, the Chapter shall have the right to proceed in conferring the remaining degrees unless objections on other grounds are made by some Companion.

A candidate for such advancement, against whom objection has been duly made, cannot receive a certificate of dismission, nor can the Chapter waive its jurisdiction over him while the objection remains in force.

FAILURE OF CANDIDATE TO PRESENT HIMSELF.

A petitioner for the degrees who fails to present himself for the degrees within six months after he shall have been duly notified of his election, shall forfeit the fee paid, provided he does not give good reason for his failure to appear; and of the sufficiency of his reason, the majority of the members present must judge; and provided further, if the time exceed one year, the previous election shall be void; but if such candidate make satisfactory excuse to the Chapter he may regularly petition again without repayment of the fee.

CONVOCATION, SPECIAL.

NOTICE OF.

Written or printed notice of a special convocation must be sent to all members of the Chapter; and no business can be transacted other than that borne upon the notice.

DEGREES.

WHEN TO BE WORKED.

The degrees of Mark Master Mason, Past Master, Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch Mason can only be conferred on candidates at a regular or special convocation, and must be worked in full.

DIMIT.

A dimit is the severance of Chapter membership. A member desiring a dimit must make a written application for the same. If he has paid all dues, is clear upon the books, and no charges are preferred against him, it must be granted. A dimitted Companion may apply to any Royal Arch Chapter for membership.

A Companion from abroad, applying for membership here, must have a dimit from the Chapter of which he had previously been a member, if such Chapter be in existence. He must make application in the usual form, deposit his dimit with application, and if elected the dimit becomes the property of the Chapter electing him to membership.

INSTALLATION. See Officers.

MEMBERSHIP. See Dimit.

A ROYAL ARCH MASON A MEMBER WHERE EXALTED.

A Royal Arch Mason exalted in this jurisdiction shall be ipso facto a member of the Chapter which exalted him without further ballot, except where the work has been done by request of, and for, another Chapter, in which case the Companion will thereby become a member of the Chapter which made the request.

OBJECTION. See Candidate, Visitors.

ELIGIBILITY TO.

Every member in good standing shall be eligible to any office in the Chapter.

OFFICERS.

CHAPTERS MUST BE OPENED FOR INSTALLATION OF.

An installation of the officers cannot be held either in public or in private without first opening the Chapter. The records of the Chapter must show the installation of its officers, and records should be made only of business transacted while the Chapter is in session.

WHO QUALIFIED TO INSTALL.

None but present or past High Priests are qualified to install the officers of a Chapter.

LENGTH OF SERVICE OF.

The officers of a Chapter are elected to serve for a term of twelve months, except when chosen to fill vacancies, and in all cases shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and installed.

RESIGNATION OF.

Neither the High Priest, King, or Scribe of a Chapter can resign, but any other officer may do so. An installed officer cannot dimit while in office.

PETITION. See Candidate.

POSTPONEMENT. See Ballot.

RECONSIDERATION. See Ballot, Vote.

REINSTATEMENT. See Suspension.

RESIGNATION. See Officers.

SEAL.

Every chartered Chapter must have a seal, and all official papers issued by the Chapter must be attested by an impression of the same.

STANDARD WORK.

Every Chapter shall practise the work as adopted by this Grand Chapter and exemplified by the Grand Lecturers. The ritual of the degree of Past Master shall be confined exclusively to the text as laid down by the Grand Chapter, and shall be conferred without any intermission or interruption in the order of progression. In the Royal Arch Degree the candidates for exaltation shall be under the exclusive control of the proper officers and without interference by any other person. Any Chapter wilfully violating these provisions shall be subject to discipline.

SUMMONS.

A summons issued by a Chapter must be written or printed and under the seal of the Chapter, and need not contain anything beyond the requisition to attend.

On complaint of a Royal Arch Mason the Chapter may issue a summons to the party accused and try and sentence him subject to the approval of the Grand Chapter.

Every Royal Arch Mason is bound to obey the summons of his Chapter and present himself before it, if within the scope of his ability.

SUSPENSION.

FOR NON-PAYMENT OF DUES.

Any member in arrears for dues may be suspended from membership, at a regular convocation of the Chapter, by a majority vote of members of the Chapter present; provided that he must first have been properly notified by the Secretary, under seal of the Chapter, of his delinquency, and of the time and place of the proposed action thereon at least thirty days before action is taken.

REINSTATEMENT AFTER.

The payment of dues shall reinstate a suspended Companion. The Secretary shall report the same to the Chapter and the fact of such payment shall be noted in the records; provided, also, that no Companion who shall remain in arrears one year after his suspension shall be reinstated except by a majority vote of the members of the Chapter present at time of his application for reinstatement and until all past dues are paid or remitted.

VISITORS.

OBJECTION TO.

No visitor can be admitted into a Chapter, if a member of such Chapter, who is present, objects; provided, that no objection shall be valid against any grand officer visiting in an official capacity; nor against any one specially deputed by the Grand High Priest to visit said Chapter; nor against a Royal Arch Mason in good standing who is acting as counsel for a Companion on trial. Such objection shall not extend beyond the meeting at which it is made, and shall not be recorded.

VOTE.

RECONSIDERATION OF.

A Chapter may reconsider any vote at the same or next succeeding stated meeting; provided that the same has not gone into effect, and that due notice of such proposed action be given.

WORK. See Standard Work.

INSTALLATION CEREMONIES

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF A CHAPTER

The Grand High Priest, or other duly authorized officer, presides; and the Chapter is opened on the Royal Arch Degree. The Grand Captain of the Host, or person acting as such, or a Past High Priest, presents the High Priest elect to the presiding officer, and says:

MOST EXCELLENT GRAND HIGH PRIEST: I present you Companion —, elected to be installed High Priest of this Chapter. I find him to be skilful in the Royal Art and attentive to the moral precepts of our forefathers, and have therefore no doubt but he will discharge the duties of his office with fidelity.

The High Priest elect then turns and faces the Companions, and the Presiding Officer says:

COMPANIONS: You now behold before you Companion —, who has been elected to serve this Chapter as High Priest, and who now declares himself ready for installation. If any of you have any reasons to urge why he should not be installed, you will make them known now, or else forever hereafter hold your peace. Hearing no objections, I shall proceed to install him.

The Presiding Officer then addresses him as follows:

MY COMPANION: I feel much satisfaction in performing my duty on the present occasion by installing you into the office of High Priest of this Chapter. It is an office highly honorable to all those who diligently perform the important duties annexed to it. Your reputed Masonic knowledge, however, precludes the necessity of a particular enumeration of those duties. I shall therefore only observe that by a frequent recurrence to the Constitution and General Regulations, and constant practice of the several sublime Lectures and Charges, you will be best able to fulfil them; and I am confident that the Companions who are chosen to preside with you will give strength to your endeavors and support to your exertions. I shall now propose certain questions to you relative to the duties of your office, to which I must request your unequivocal answer.

1. Do you solemnly promise that you will redouble your endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of those of your Companions who have attained this sublime degree?
2. That you will never suffer your Chapter to be opened, unless there be present nine regular Royal Arch Masons?
3. That you will never suffer a greater or less number than three brethren to be exalted in your Chapter at one and the same time?
4. That you will not exalt any one to this degree who has not shown a charitable and humane disposition; or who has not made a considerable proficiency in the foregoing degrees?

5. That you will promote the general good of our Order, and, on all proper occasions, be ready to give and receive instructions, particularly from the General and State Grand Officers?

6. That, to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnities of our ceremonies, and behave in open Chapter with the most profound respect and reverence, as an example to your Companions?

7. That you will not acknowledge or have intercourse with any Chapter that does not work under a constitutional warrant or dispensation?

8. That you will not admit any visitor into your Chapter who has not been exalted in a Chapter legally constituted, without his being first formally healed?

9. That you will observe and support such by-laws as may be made by your Chapter, in conformity to the General Grand Royal Arch Constitution and the General Regulations of the Grand Chapter?

10. That you will pay due respect and obedience to the instructions of the General and State Grand Officers, particularly relating to the several Lectures and Charges, and will resign the chair to them, severally, when they may visit your Chapter?

11. That you will support and observe the General Grand Royal Arch Constitution, and the General Regulations of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, under whose authority you act?

Do you submit to all these things, and do you promise to observe and practise them faithfully?

Answer. I do.

Companion Captain of the Host, you will conduct the High Priest elect to the altar to receive the benefit of prayer and to take his official obligation.

The Grand Chaplain is then conducted to the altar and offers the following Prayer.

Most holy and glorious Lord God, the Great High Priest of Heaven and Earth:

We approach thee with reverence, and implore thy blessing on the Companion appointed to preside over this Chapter, and now prostrate before thee. Fill his heart with thy fear, that his tongue and actions may pronounce thy glory. Make him steadfast in thy service; grant him firmness of mind; animate his heart and strengthen his endeavors. May he teach thy judgments and thy laws; and may the incense he shall put before thee, upon thine altar, prove an acceptable sacrifice unto thee. Bless him, O Lord, and bless the work of his hands. Accept us in mercy; hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive our transgressions.

Glory be to God on high.

Response. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. So mote it be. Amen.

The Presiding Officer then administers the following obligation to the High Priest elect:

"I, — —, do promise and swear that I will serve this Chapter as High Priest for the time that I have been elected; that I will perform all the duties appertaining to that office to the best of my abilities, and will support and maintain the Constitution and Laws of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of — — and that of the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the United States, and the By-Laws of this Chapter."

(Companions are now seated.)

The Grand High Priest will then cause the High Priest to be invested with the clothing and badges of his office, and will address him as follows :

I now invest you with this breastplate, in imitation of that upon which were engraven the names of the twelve tribes, and worn by the High Priest of Israel, which is to teach you that you are always to bear in mind your responsibility to the laws and ordinances of the Institution, and that the honor and interests of your Chapter and its members should be always near your heart.

I present you with the Holy Bible, Square, and Compasses, the three great lights in every degree of Masonry. The doctrines contained in this sacred volume create in us a belief in the dispensations of Divine Providence, which belief strengthens our faith, and enables us to ascend the first step of the Grand Masonic Ladder. This faith naturally produces in us a hope of becoming partakers of the promises expressed in this inestimable gift of God to man, which hope enables us to ascend the second step. But the third and last, being Charity, comprehends the former, and will continue to exert its influence when Faith shall be lost in sight, and Hope in complete enjoyment.

By the Square and Compasses we are taught to circumscribe our desires, and practise the duties of friendship, morality, and brotherly love.

I now deliver into your hands the Charter under which you are to work ; you will receive it as a sacred deposit, and never permit it to be used for any other purposes than those expressed in it.

I present you with the Constitution of the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter, the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of this Commonwealth, and also with the By-Laws of your Chapter. You will cause all these to be frequently read and punctually obeyed. The Records of the Chapter you will cause to be carefully and correctly kept.

Lastly, I present you with this Mallet, a blow of which will command attention and restore order in the Chapter.

Let the Mitre with which you are invested remind you of the dignity of the office you sustain, and its inscription impress upon your mind a sense of your dependence upon God ; — that perfection is not given unto man upon earth, and that perfect holiness becometh alone unto the Lord.

The various colors of the robes you wear are emblematical of every grace and virtue which can adorn and beautify the human mind.

And now, in consequence of your cheerful acquiescence in the charges just recited, I declare you duly installed High Priest of this Chapter, not doubting your determination to support the honor and reputation of our sublime Order.

(The High Priest is seated.)

Permit me, therefore, in behalf of the Craft here assembled, to offer you our sincere congratulation on your accession to the honorable station you now fill. I doubt not you will govern with such order and regularity as to convince your Companions that their partiality has not been misplaced.

Companions of — Chapter, behold your High Priest. (They rise and bow, or if the installation be not public, salute him with the honors of Royal Arch Masonry.) Recollect that the prosperity of your Chapter will as much depend on your support, assistance and obedience as on his assiduity, fidelity and wisdom.

The same call is made to the King and Scribe, for objections; the same obligation (with the necessary variation of title) which has been taken by the High Priest is taken by each of the officers, and each is presented as follows:

MOST EXCELLENT: I hereby present Companion —, who has been duly elected to serve this Chapter for the ensuing Masonic year, and who now declares himself ready for installation.

Charge to the King.

MY COMPANION: The important station to which you are elected in this Chapter requires from you exemplary conduct; its duties demand your most assiduous attention; you are to second and support your chief in all the requirements of his office; and in his absence to succeed him in the performance of his duties.

Your badge (the Level surmounted by a Crown) should remind you that, although you are the representative of a King, and exalted by office above your Companions, you yet remain upon a level with them, as respects your duty to God, to your neighbor, and to yourself; that you are equally bound with them to be obedient to the laws and ordinances of the Institution; to be charitable, humane and just, and to seek every occasion of doing good.

The Scarlet Robe, an emblem of imperial dignity, should remind you of the paternal concern you should ever feel for the welfare of your Chapter, and the fervency and zeal with which you should endeavor to promote its prosperity.

In presenting to you the Crown, which is an emblem of royalty, I would remind you that to reign sovereign in the hearts and affections of men must be far more grateful to a generous and benevolent mind than to rule over their lives and fortunes; and that, to enable you to enjoy this pre-eminence with honor and satisfaction, you must subject your own passions and prejudices to the dominion of reason and charity.

You are entitled to the second seat in the council of your Companions. Let the bright example of your illustrious predecessor in the Grand Council at Jerusalem stimulate you to the faithful discharge of your duties; and when the King of Kings shall summon you into his immediate presence, may you receive from his hand a crown of glory which shall never fade away.

Charge to the Scribe.

MY COMPANION: The office of Scribe, to which you are elected, entitles you to the third seat in the council of your Companions. In the absence of your superior officers, you are bound to succeed them, and to perform their duties. You will, therefore, studiously endeavor to acquire such knowledge as will enable you to discharge the various duties which may devolve upon you in their absence.

The Purple Robe, with which you are invested, is an emblem of union; and should remind you that the harmony and unanimity of the Chapter should be your constant aim; and as the glorious sun, at its meridian height, dispels the mist and clouds which obscure the horizon, so may your exertions tend to dissipate the gloom of jealousy and discord, whenever they may appear.

Your badge (a Plumb-rule surmounted by the Turban) is an emblem of rectitude and vigilance; and while you stand as a watchman on the tower, to guard your Companions against the approach of those enemies of human felicity, intemperance and excess, let this faithful monitor ever remind you to walk uprightly in your station; encouraging and admonishing your Companions to fidelity and industry while at labor, and to temperance and moderation while at refreshment. And when the great Watchman of Israel, whose eye never slumbers nor sleeps, shall relieve you from your post on earth, may he permit you in heaven to enjoy the companionship of saints and angels forever in his presence.

Companion Captain of the Host, you will assemble the remaining officers elected and appointed around the altar for obligation.

Charge to the Chaplain.

MY COMPANION: You are appointed Chaplain of this Chapter, and I now invest you with this circular jewel, the badge of your office. It is emblematical of eternity, and reminds us that here is not our abiding-place. Your inclination will undoubtedly conspire with your duty, when you perform in the Chapter those solemn services which all created beings should constantly render to their infinite Creator, and, when performed in a spirit of reverence and sincerity, may, by refining our morals, strengthening our virtues, and purifying our minds, prepare us for admission into the society of those above, whose happiness will be as endless as it is perfect.

Charge to the Treasurer.

MY COMPANION: You are elected Treasurer of this Chapter, and I have the pleasure of investing you with the jewel of your office. The qualities which should recommend a Treasurer are accuracy and fidelity; accuracy, in keeping a fair and minute account of all receipts and disbursements; fidelity, in carefully preserving all the property and funds of the Chapter that may be placed in his hands, and rendering a just account of the same, whenever he is called upon for that purpose. I am confident that your respect for the Institution, your attachment to the interests of your Chapter, and your regard for a good name, which is better than precious ointment, will prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office. And when your final account is rendered and you are summoned to the Grand Chapter above, may you receive the welcome greeting: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Charge to the Secretary.

MY COMPANION: With pleasure I invest you with your jewel as Secretary of this Chapter. The qualities which should recommend a Secretary are promptitude in issuing the notifications and orders of his superior officers, punctuality in attending the convocations of the Chapter, correctness in recording its proceedings, judgment in discriminating between what is proper and what is improper to be committed to writing, regularity in making his annual returns to the Grand Chapter, integrity in accounting for all moneys that may pass through his hands, and fidelity in paying the same over into the hands of the Treasurer. The possession of these good qualities, I doubt not, has designated you as a suitable candidate for this important office; and I feel sure that you will discharge its duties beneficially to the Chapter, and honorably to yourself. And when you shall have completed the record of your transactions here below, and finished the term of your probation, may you find your name recorded in the Book of Life Eternal.

Charge to the Captain of the Host.

COMPANION CAPTAIN OF THE HOST: The office with which you are intrusted is of high importance, and demands your most earnest consideration; and it is indispensably necessary that the part assigned to you, in the immediate practice of our rites and ceremonies, should be perfectly understood and correctly administered.

Your office corresponds with that of Marshal or Master of Ceremonies. You are to superintend all processions of your Chapter, when moving as a distinct body, either in public or private, and as the world can judge of our private discipline only by our public deportment, you will be careful that the utmost order and decorum be observed on all such occasions. You will ever be attentive to the commands of your chief, and always near at hand to see them duly executed. I invest you with the jewel of your office, and presume that you will give to your duties all that study and attention which their importance demands.

Charge to the Principal Sojourner.

COMPANION PRINCIPAL SOJOURNER: The office intrusted to you, though subordinate in degree, is equal in importance to any in the Chapter, that of your chief alone excepted. It corresponds to that of Senior Deacon in the preparatory degrees. Among the duties required of you, the preparation and introduction of candidates are not the least. As in our intercourse with the world, experience teaches that first impressions are often the most durable and the most difficult to eradicate, so it is of great importance in all cases that those impressions should be correct and just; hence it is essential that the officer who brings the blind by a way that they know not, and leads them in paths that they have not known, should always be well qualified to make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight.

Your office teaches that in the prosecution of a laudable enterprise we should never decline taking any part that may be assigned us, although it may be the most difficult or dangerous, and that when we have engaged in a virtuous cause, notwithstanding all the hardships and trials we may be destined to encounter, we should ardently and steadfastly persevere unto the end, resting assured of receiving, at the termination of our labors, a noble and glorious reward. Your past exertions will be considered as a pledge of your fidelity in the discharge of your duties, and with pleasure I invest you with the jewel of your office.

Charge to the Royal Arch Captain.

COMPANION ROYAL ARCH CAPTAIN: Your office corresponds with that of Junior Deacon in the preparatory degrees. You are to obey the commands of the Captain of the Host during the introduction of strangers among the workmen; so that should they be permitted to pass your post, they may be conducted by him into the presence of the Grand Council.

The White Banner, intrusted to your care, is emblematical of that purity of heart and rectitude of conduct which ought to actuate all those who pass the white veil of the sanctuary. I give it to you strongly in charge never to suffer any one to pass your post without the signet of truth.

I present you the jewel of your office and arm you with this sword, in expectation of your performing your duties with intelligence and courage.

Charge to the Master of the Third Veil.

COMPANION MASTER OF THE THIRD VEIL: I present you with the Scarlet Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and with a sword to protect and defend the same. The rich and beautiful color of your banner is emblematical of fergency and zeal; it is the appropriate color of the Royal Arch Degree, and admonishes us that we should be fervent in the exercise of our devotions to God, and zealous in our endeavors to promote the happiness of man.

Charge to the Master of the Second Veil.

COMPANION MASTER OF THE SECOND VEIL: I invest you with the Purple Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and arm you with a sword to enable you to maintain its honor.

The color of your banner is produced by a due mixture of blue and scarlet; the former of which is the characteristic color of the symbolic or first three degrees of Masonry, and the latter, that of the Royal Arch Degree. It is an emblem of union, and admonishes us to cultivate and improve that spirit of union and harmony which should ever distinguish the members of a society founded upon the principles of everlasting truth and universal philanthropy.

Charge to the Master of the First Veil.

COMPANION MASTER OF THE FIRST VEIL: I invest you with the Blue Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and a sword for its defence and protection. The color of your banner is one of the most durable and beautiful in nature. It is the appropriate color adopted and worn by our ancient brethren of the three symbolic degrees, and is the peculiar characteristic of an institution which has stood the test of ages, and which is as much distinguished by the durability of its materials or principles as by the beauty of its superstructure. It is an emblem of universal friendship and benevolence; and instructs us that, in the mind of a Mason, those virtues should be as expansive as the blue arch of heaven itself.

Charge to the Three Masters of the Veils, as Overseers.

COMPANIONS: As Overseers of the work, you should be well qualified to judge of its beauties and defects. This consideration should induce you to cultivate and improve all those qualifications with which you are already endowed, as well as to persevere in your endeavors to acquire those in which you are deficient. Let no work receive your approbation but such as is calculated to strengthen and adorn the Masonic edifice. Be industrious and faithful in practising and disseminating a knowledge of the true and perfect work, which alone can stand the test of the Grand Overseer's Square in the great day of trial and retribution. Let the various colors of the banners committed to your charge admonish you to the exercise of the several virtues of which they are emblematic. Enjoin the practice of those virtues upon all who shall present themselves, or the work of their hands, for your inspection. Then, although every rod should become a serpent, and every serpent an enemy to this Institution, yet shall their utmost exertions to destroy its reputation or sap its foundation, become as impotent as the leprous hand, or as water spilled upon the ground, which cannot be gathered up again.

Charge to the Stewards.

COMPANIONS: You are appointed Stewards of this Chapter, and I now invest you with the jewels of your office. You will see that every necessary preparation is made for the convenience and accommodation of the Chapter, previous to the time appointed for meeting, and that proper care is taken of the paraphernalia at the close of each convocation. You will see that all Companions are properly entertained at refreshment, and perform such other service as may be required; and I have no doubt that a faithful performance of these humble duties will recommend you for future preferment.

Charge to the Organist.

MY COMPANION: You are appointed Organist of this Chapter, and I invest you with this jewel of your office. Under the direction of the High Priest you will conduct the musical exercises of the Chapter. As harmony is the strength and support of all institutions, so may the harmony over which you shall preside strengthen and support every gentle and ennobling emotion of the soul.

Charge to the Tyler.

MY COMPANION: You are appointed Tyler of this Chapter, and I invest you with the jewel and this implement of your office. As the sword is placed in the hands of the Tyler to enable him effectually to guard against the approach of all cowans and eavesdroppers and suffer none to pass or repass but such as are duly qualified, so it should morally serve to admonish us to set a guard over our thoughts, a watch at our lips, to post a sentinel over our actions, thereby excluding every unworthy thought, word or deed, thus preserving consciences void of offence towards God and man.

As the first application from visitors for admission into the Chapter is generally made to the Tyler at the door, your station will often present you to the observation of strangers; it is, therefore, essentially necessary that he who sustains the office with which you are intrusted should be a man of good morals, steady habits, strict discipline, temperate, affable and discreet. I trust that a just regard for the honor and reputation of the Institution will ever induce you to perform with fidelity the trust reposed in you; and when the door of this earthly tabernacle shall be closed, may you find an abundant entrance through the gates into the temple and city of our God.

The Grand High Priest then delivers the following

Address to the High Priest.

EXCELLENT COMPANION: Having been honored with the free suffrages of the members of this Chapter, you are elected to the most important office which it is within their power to bestow. This expression of their esteem and respect should draw from you corresponding emotions; and you should repay the honor they have so conspicuously conferred upon you by an honorable and faithful discharge of your duties. You must be sensibly aware that the public reputation of the Institution will be generally found to rise or fall according to the skill, fidelity, and discretion with which its concerns are managed, and as the characters and conduct of its principal officers are estimable or censurable.

You have accepted a trust to which is attached a responsibility that will require all your efforts to discharge honorably to yourself and satisfactorily to the Chapter. You are to see that your officers are capable and faithful in the exercise of their duties. Should they lack ability, you are expected to supply their defects; and to see that the long-established customs of the Institution suffer no derangement in their hands. You are to have a careful eye over the general conduct of the Chapter; see that due order and subordination are observed on all occasions; that the members are properly instructed; that due solemnity is observed in the practice of our rites; and that no improper levity is permitted at any time, but more especially during the introduction of strangers among the workmen.

In fine, you are to be an example to your officers and members, which they need not hesitate to follow; thus securing to yourself the applause of your Companions and the favor of heaven.

Address to the Officers Generally.

COMPANIONS IN OFFICE: Precept and example should ever advance with equal pace. Those moral duties which you are required to teach, you should never neglect to practise.

Let your conduct towards your associates be such as to merit their esteem and respect. Let your desire to obtain knowledge be equalled by a willingness to instruct others. Do you desire distinction among your Companions? Be sure that your claims to preferment are founded upon superior attainments; let no ambitious passion induce you to envy or supplant a Companion who may be considered as better qualified for promotion than yourselves, but rather let a laudable emulation induce you to strive to excel each other in improvement and discipline, ever remembering that he who faithfully performs his duty, even in a subordinate or private station, is as justly entitled to esteem and respect as he who is invested with supreme authority.

Charge to the Chapter.

COMPANIONS: The character and good standing of your Chapter is so well established that I must presume this consideration alone, were there no others of greater magnitude, would be sufficient to induce you to maintain this valuable and honorable reputation. But when to this is added the pleasure which every philanthropic heart must feel in doing good, in promoting good order, in diffusing light and knowledge, in cultivating Masonic and Christian charity, which are the great objects of this sublime Institution, I cannot doubt that your future conduct, and that of your successors, will be such as to increase the lustre of your justly esteemed reputation.

May your Chapter become beautiful as the temple, peaceful as the ark, and sacred as its most holy place. May your oblations of piety and praise be grateful as the incense, your love warm as its flame, and your charity diffusive as its fragrance. May your hearts be pure as the altar, and your conduct acceptable as the offering. May the exercise of your charity be as constant as the returning wants of the distressed widow and helpless orphan. May the approbation of Heaven be your encouragement, and the testimony of a good conscience your support; may you be endowed with every good and perfect gift, while travelling the rugged path of life, and finally be admitted within the veil of Heaven, to the full enjoyment of life eternal. So mote it be. Amen.

Companion Grand Captain of the Host, you will make the customary proclamation.

The Grand Captain of the Host then makes the following proclamation:

In the name of the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts, I hereby proclaim the officers of — Chapter to be duly installed into their respective offices with the private Grand Honors of Royal Arch Masonry,* by three times three.

The private Grand Honors are then given.

* If the installation takes place in public, the expression will be "with the public Grand Honors of Masonry, by three times three," and the public Grand Honors will be given.

CEREMONY OF CONSTITUTION.

CONSECRATION OF A NEW CHAPTER.

The new Chapter will meet in its hall and open on the Royal Arch Degree; the Grand Officers will meet in an adjoining room, and on being notified by a committee of the new Chapter that its members are ready for their reception, they will proceed to the Chapter room, where being received by the new Chapter with the Grand Honors, the officers of the new Chapter resign their stations to the Grand Officers. A procession is then formed by the Grand Captain of the Host, as follows, which repairs to the church, or place designated for the performance of the ceremonies.

On arriving at the church, or place where the ceremonies are to be performed, the procession halts, faces inwards, and the Grand Officers and others pass through. All being seated, the ceremonies commence as follows :

ANTHEM.

PRAYER BY THE GRAND CHAPLAIN.

Almighty and Supreme High Priest of Heaven and Earth! Who is there in Heaven but thee? and who upon earth can stand in competition with thee? Thy OMNISCIENT Mind brings all things in review, past, present and to come; thine OMNIPOTENT Arm directs the movements of the vast creation; thine OMNI-PRESENT Eye pervades the secret recesses of every heart; thy boundless beneficence supplies us with every comfort and enjoyment; and thine unspeakable perfections and glory surpass the understanding of the children of men! Our Father, who art in Heaven, we invoke thy benediction upon the purposes of our present assembly. May this Chapter be established to thine honor, and consecrated to thy glory; may its officers' be endowed with wisdom to discern, and fidelity to pursue, its true interests; and may its members be ever mindful of the duty they owe to their God, the obedience they owe to their superiors, the love they owe to their equals, and the good will they owe to all mankind.

Glory be to God on high!

Response. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. So mote it be. Amen.

ORATION.

The Grand Captain of the Host then forms the new Chapter in front of the Grand High Priest.

The Deputy Grand High Priest says :

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, a number of Companions, duly instructed in the sublime mysteries, being desirous of promoting the honor, and propagating the principles of the Art, have applied to the Grand Chapter for a Warrant to constitute a new Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, which having been obtained, they are now assembled for the purpose of being constituted, and having their officers installed in due and ancient form.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST. Let the Warrant of Constitution be read.

GRAND SECRETARY reads it.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST. Companions, do you still approve of the officers as named herein?

COMPANIONS. We do.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST. By virtue of the high powers in me vested, I do form you, my respected Companions, into a regular Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. From henceforth you are authorized and empowered to open and hold a Lodge of Mark Master Masons, Past Masters, and Most Excellent Masters, and a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; and to do and perform all such things as thereunto may appertain; conforming in all your doings to the General Grand Royal Arch Constitution, and the General Regulations of the State Grand Chapter. And may the God of your Fathers be with you, guide and direct you in all your doings.

The Ark of the Covenant, and the furniture, clothing, jewels, and implements belonging to the Chapter (having been previously placed in the center, in front of the Grand High Priest), are now uncovered, and the dedication proceeds.

The Grand Chaplain, with the pot of incense in his hands, says:

To our most excellent patron Zerubbabel, we solemnly dedicate this Chapter. May the blessing of our heavenly High Priest descend and rest upon its members, and may their felicity be immortal. Glory be to God on high!

Response. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

MUSIC, OR AN ODE.

The Deputy Grand High Priest then presents the High Priest of the new Chapter to the Grand High Priest, saying:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, I present you Companion —, nominated in the Warrant, to be installed High Priest of this new Chapter. I find him to be skilful in the royal art, and attentive to the moral precepts of our forefathers, and have therefore no doubt he will discharge the duties of his office with fidelity.
